For Immediate Release:

APPLY FOR AN ASI SCHOLARSHIP!

Cal State Fullerton students encouraged to apply for scholarships available through ASI

FULLERTON—This spring semester, Associated Students, CSUF, Inc. (ASI) is offering Cal State Fullerton students up to $14,000 in scholarships, as well as 35 free book rental scholarships. Applications are available online at asischolarships.fullerton.edu, in the ASI Executive Offices located in the Titan Student Union (TSU) room 207, and at the Information & Services desk in the main lobby of the TSU. All applications must be submitted to TSU-207 by 5 p.m. on Monday, March 12, 2012 to be eligible.

Scholarships available this semester are each valued at $1,000 and include: Adult Re-entry; Graduate Student, Student-Parent, Carol Burke Memorial; Harvey A. McKee Distinguished Student Leadership; Richard M. Nixon Memorial; and the Virginia McGarvey Memorial. The monetary scholarships are funded through Titan Shops and individual contributions, while the book rental scholarships are funded through a partnership between Titan Shops and ASI.

Jay L. Jefferson II, ASI Executive Vice President notes, “The ASI Scholarship is one of many great programs and services that we provide for our students. With this program we have a variety of categories which make our scholarships accessible to students from every walk of life, from our general undergraduate and graduate students, to more specific categories like student parents and student athletes.”

For more information regarding ASI scholarships, please visit asi.fullerton.edu or contact ASI Executive Vice President, Jay L. Jefferson II at (657) 278-4223.
