FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIFE OF AN UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILD THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

FULLERTON, Calif. — There is only one week left to donate a gift to the Titan Toy Drive. This annual event serves underprivileged children in Orange County, ages 7-14, and is hosted by Camp Titan, the official philanthropy of Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) at Cal State Fullerton.

Unwrapped toys and monetary donations will be collected at the Titan Student Union (TSU) Information & Services desk through December 5. All donations will be distributed by Camp Titan student organizers at a holiday party later in December.

Students, faculty, staff and friends of Cal State Fullerton are encouraged to participate in this worthwhile program. “You may not realize how much your donation means,” said Ray Edmondson, Camp Titan Co-Director of Camper Management. “For some families in Orange County, these donations are the difference between having gifts for their children this holiday season and having nothing at all. Every single donation we receive truly makes a difference in the life of a child served by this toy drive.”

The Titan Toy Drive began November 1 and runs through December 5. For more information about the Camp Titan Toy Drive, please visit asi.fullerton.edu or contact the Camp Titan office at (657) 278-3036.

Camp Titan is an American Camping Association accredited camp and the recognized philanthropy of ASI for more than 40 years, funded through Associated Student Body fees, Greek Week activities, and private donations.
